4. Restrictions To Edit Software Products and License

You may not reverse engineer, decompile, defeat license encryption mechanisms, or disassemble the Software Product or Software Product License except and only to the extent that such activity is expressly permitted by applicable law notwithstanding this limitation.

5. Trioangle Support Services

Trioangle may provide you with support services related to the Software Product. Use of any such support services is governed by the Trioangle policies and programs described in "online" documentation and/or other Trioangle provided materials. Any supplemental software code or related materials that Trioangle provides to you as part of the support services is to be considered part of the Software Product and is subject to the terms and conditions of this EULA. With respect to any technical information you provide to Trioangle as part of the support services, Trioangle may use such information for its business purposes without restriction, including for product support and development. Trioangle will not use such technical information in a form that personally identifies you.

6. Termination Without Prejudice To Any Other Rights

Trioangle may terminate this EULA if you fail to comply with any term or condition of this EULA. In such event, Licensee agrees to return to Licensor or to destroy all copies of the Software upon termination of the License.

7. Refund Policy

Refunds will not be given for reasons surrounding the user's lack of knowledge of the software's functionality, limitations, or restrictions, as we provided every opportunity to evaluate the software prior to purchase. Please take time and evaluate the software using our online demo or trial version. Before purchase, make sure that your server supports the software requirements. If you have a question, please feel free to contact our team before making your purchase. Complete source code is shipped with the software, the digital nature of the product makes it non returnable; therefore all sales are final. Refunds are NOT given for installation fees or other non-product labour costs.

8. Miscellaneous

(a) We reserve the right to reference any website or company using the Software in our sales and marketing literature.

(b) We reserve the right to monitor compliance with this EULA and to restrict the use of the Software for non-compliance.

(c) If installation service is not required/ordered, product is usually delivered by e-mail within 24 hours after the order has been received, but please allow a maximum of 3 (three) business days for delivery in special circumstances (anti-fraud verifications, internet connection problems, etc.)

(d) Deliverables. Full PHP/JS/CSS/AJAX source code is delivered; Admin Panel source code is available only for specific packages.

(f) Installation Service. Due to the high demand, please allow a maximum number of 2 (two) business days for providing the paid installation service. The time frame is considered from the moment when all required Server information has been received. Installation service will not be delivered if the designated server does not meet the software requirements.

(g) Anti-Fraud Verifications. We reserve the right to ask the client to provide us legal documents in order to verify that he/she is the real credit card holder, if we have reasons to believe that an order is fraudulent, and cancel/refund the order if these required documents are not provided.
